HORSE

A DESIRE FOR SOMETHING REAL.

Presence, a relaxed feeling of alert awareness that can be extremely restorative. This state of complete engagement is elusive at times, but when we are able to achieve it, any experience can be heightened - a breathtaking view, a meaningful interaction, or an unforgettable ride. Fleeting presence turns us all into seekers of pure focus, longing for those precious moments in which we can just drop everything and tune in; delight in the sensation of being exactly where we are, in both body and mind. We crave the quietude of the open road, which helps us return to ourselves and repair our fractured focus, revelling in this regenerating state, completely free of distraction.

THE HORSE ZODIAC SIGN EMBODIES INTELLIGENCE, POSITIVITY AND PERSEVERANCE.

The Vespa 946 Horse is the latest addition to the Lunar Collection, a series of items that celebrate the Asian Lunar calendar, presented in a numbered limited edition and available for a short time only. 2023 was the year of the Bunny; 2024 saw the launch of the Dragon; in 2025 the Snake was released, and now, Vespa is proud to present the Vespa 946 Horse.

RIDE THE HORSE

When standing before such an awe-inspiring spectacle, there can only be two courses of action: jump on and ride, or take the time to savor the moment. Here we will savor, but if you prefer to ride now and read later, don't forget your helmet.

POWERFULLY BUILT

INNATELY ELEGANT

An international symbol of freedom of movement and expression, with a strong inclination to explore, the very spirit of the Vespa 946 shares many parallels with the Horse, whose regal commanding stature belies the playfulness of this compelling creature. In the Lunar zodiac, Horses are dynamic and drawn to activity. They are independent animals who are highly self-reliant. People born under the sign of the Horse tend to be intelligent and quick-witted, with a positive outlook even in the most challenging situations.

The characteristic restlessness of the Horse translates to the nimble agility of the Vespa 946 Horse, both dynamic and responsive, with a strong foundation. To be headstrong implies being extremely driven, and the determination of people born under the sign of the Horse can also be thought of as persistence; they are strongly committed to seeing ideas through to completion. With its powerful build and innate elegance, the imposing stature of the Horse draws you in, inspiring both awe and admiration.

Bay: a deep burnished brown, which can range from a light tan to a dark, nearly black shade. The rich brown hue of the Vespa 946 Horse shows its warm undertones in the glow of sunlight and is enhanced by the contrasting textures of the matte and high shine finishes selected for the frame. Gold details add to the depth of the earthy, metallic brown that offers a feeling of comfort and stability.

As with any thoroughbred, its vigor is evident in much more than a luscious mane and a well-groomed coat, and the Vespa 946 Horse is the ideal balance of prestige and performance. Rooted in the core Vespa principles of quality and unique design, this new masterpiece features real leather trims on the handlebars and rearview mirror brackets. Golden accents include the rivets and buckle that punctuate the leather saddle, and the brake caliper guide pins which ensure a smooth decrescendo.

COMMANDING STATURE

Stylistic innovation was pushed to a gallop to ensure the excellence of this latest addition to the Lunar Collection. This approach extends seamlessly to the accompanying accessories, reflecting the same scrupulous attention to detail, ensuring a cohesive experience that upholds the high standards set by the Vespa 946 Horse itself. The design philosophy emphasizes not only aesthetics but also practicality and durability, guaranteeing that every component embodies the pinnacle of quality and user experience.

Symbol of the Vespa 946 Horse and a good luck talisman, the stylized Vespa "V" in the centre of a golden horseshoe appears beneath the saddle.

The selection of accessories which accompany the Vespa 946 Horse is meticulously curated to echo the equestrian style that differentiates this unique offering. Made in Italy from the same leather as the saddle, the rear bag is both practical and elegant, and perfectly complements the refined feel of the Vespa 946 Horse. The black elastic vehicle-cover protects the scooter from dust and dirt, while the flyscreen is detailed with aluminum brackets that add to the vehicle's aesthetic. Designed with both safety and style in mind, the exclusive jet helmet also features the three dimensional gold stylized "V" placed at the back, affirming its strong, unique identity.
